let's lie and say that it's alright it's alright
let's lie and say that it's alright when we fight together let's say we're happy even though even though let's be happy even though we know we're both done trying

how would we know that we'd both end up crying?
they say let go
i guess we're still stuck trying i'm getting nervous
i'm lost in this heartbreak how long will this love kick me down?

it started innocent at first at first it started with some sweetheart words that i strung together and then we saw each other's eyes each other's eyes and it was like seeing the starry night for the very first time remember when we both said it's forever come on baby, were we just being clever?

i'm getting nervous
how long will this love kick me down?

some things don't softly go
but it's over now (somebody gonna hurt somebody) it's over now (somebody gonna hurt somebody)

they say it happens all the time all the time that early love will make you blind as a sun eclipsing but we just drove, passed all the signs all the signs not caring what the wise might say and what we might be missing

how long will this love take me down?

somebody gonna hurt somebody
