Now, my baby got excited about a little ring
But our marriage didn't mean a thing
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
My baby, she doesn't love me no more

I got the meanest woman man has ever seen
She ?????? dream
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
My baby, she doesn't want me no more

Now I ain't going down ain't by myself
If I can't take you down I'll take someone else
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
I've been dealing with the devil
My baby, she doesn't want me no more

Sweet Mistress of Pain
(- Brock -)
Feel the pain burning, reaching up your spine
How your body shudders, higher as you climb
You're reaching for the sky, as the lash descends
Think of stars of fire, burning in your head
Lightning in your opening eye's burning force of power
Feel the velvet whip turning sweet thoughts to sour

Down and down you slowly slide
Your burning body under mine
Together our world with legs entwined
Silky skin, with hardened lines
The scent of leather in the air
The colours change, not really there
You taste the sweetness of the pain
