And in the fullness of time, The Prophecy must be fulfilled. The Hawklords return to smite the land and the Dark Forces shall be scourged. Peace shall come to everyone, for is it not written that the sword is the key to Heaven and Hell.

It's eighteen years since they were formed
>From the land of thought where they were spawned
The realm of the Hawk is soon to show
Silver wings for you to go

Hawkwind, Hawkwind, here's the verse
Masters of the Universe
Take me back to the Ritual time
Peace and love forever mine

To save you for the Sonic Attack
The Angels of Light take you back
To Utopia where thinking's a crime
So you can be in paradise

Hawkwind, Hawkwind, here's the verse
Masters of the Universe
Take me back to the Ritual time
Peace and love forever mine

Adjust me, adjust me, adjust me, adjust me
In search of space the sundown came
The runways laid in your brain
Storm into the dark of light
451 Fahrenheit

Hawkwind, Hawkwind, here's the verse
Masters of the Universe
Take me back to the Ritual time
Peace and love forever mine
