(Moorcock)

Ships of Chaos upwards churning
From the nightmare realms below
Dragons downwards, venom burning
Now attack the malformed foe
Lords of Hell, all pity spurning
Cry "Revenge" and lust for death
Their servant Elric's mind is turning
To sweet Law's promises of rest
Monstrous men and manlike monsters
Battle for the end of time
Meanwhile heavy metal songsters
Cut themselves another line...
Speed now! Speed to war and horror
Speed to battle - Speed to die
Hasten, for there's no tomorrow
The future's merely another lie
Dragons sigh and dragons soaring
Marshall for their Final Fight
Chaos creatures in torment roaring
Seek the rule of Earth's old night.
Dragon brothers onward fly
Chaos summons all her might
Dragon Lord is coming nigh
Come to fight the Final Fight
Come to fight the Final Fight
