Time we left this world today

Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today

So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say

They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street

Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet

Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind

Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today

So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say

They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street

Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet

Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind

Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left
Time we left
Time we left
