I never meant to hurt you
Sometimes these thoughts
Have a way of making sense
Secrets that we keep turn into accidents

If you burn away the bonds
With the fires of selfishness
The positive, the negative
Have a way of making ends

End this now, we've gone too far
Let's take back words that turned to scars
If I can find a way to turn back time
Had to let you know I'm on your side
(Had to let you know)

Took the easy way out
I showed my self doubt
The only way to ease the pain
Is to drink until I drown

I'll say it out loud
My voice is the only sound
So it listen up, I'll spell it out
I need your help, I need it now

End this now, we've gone too far
Let's take back words that turned to scars
If I can find a way to turn back time
Had to let you know I'm on your side
(Had to let you know)

Am I now everything
(Am I now everything?)
That you wanted me to be
Tried my best, took a shot
(Tried my best)
In the dark and I lost

End this now, we've gone too far
Let's take back words that turned to scars
If I can find a way to turn back time

Had to let you know I'm on your side
(Had to let you know)

If I can find a way to turn back time
Had to let you know I'm on your side
(Had to let you know)
