Let's go down now
Into the darkness
Of your thoughts
Hurry up now

We're waiting for
Us to fall, fall to pieces now
A broken mirror
In your life

Silence in black and white
Falling forward as she
Walks towards the light

Well, I know
I'm outside of your window with my radio

I sleep with
One eye open so
I can see you breathing

I follow your chest home

Until I
I can see you
I can hear you
Breathe in, exhale

Silence in black and white

Well, I know
I'm outside of your window with my radio
Well, I know
I'm outside of your window with my radio

I'm outside of your window with my radio
I'm outside of your window with my radio
I'm outside of your window with my radio

I'm outside of your window with my radio
You are the only station
You play the song, I know

You are the song I know
