Just light the match and run
Run from all those times
She poured gasoline
By fires light, she cried

She cried all night
Salt from her tears
Rusted shut her eyes
She should have shut her eyes

Turn off the lights
Blow out the candles tonight
Romance this chance
To set angels to flight
Before they die

I'll take this ink from my arms
And write your name in the sky
Please don't use my letters
To start your fires this time

Your fire this time
Your fire this time

Please drive faster
Faster than the light
Erase her embrace
Erase it from your mind
Let this die

I'll take this ink from my arms
And write your name in the sky
Please don't use my letters
To start your fires this time

Remember oceans
Like times together
Across these oceans
I sent my letters
I sent these letters to you

Remember oceans

Time together in my mind
Remember starting
Your fires off my eyes

Remember these oceans
Like fires off your eyes
