Don't hesitate to remember everything
From this never ending drama monologue
Don't leave your hate and surrender
Try to save all the friends that you have lost

Save yourself from the thing that you have learned
Save yourself from all the trust you never earned
We will all burn from the burning out
We will all burn from the liar's mouth
Save yourself from everything you have learned

It's easy to forget where you are and where you've been
So far in this business of inconsistent paper stars
So let us die, but let us live
If you want more, there's none to give

So just stop asking for the right
Drain us all dry tonight

Save yourself from the thing that you have learned
Save yourself from all the trust you never earned
We will all burn from the burning out
We will all burn from the liar's mouth
Save yourself from everything you have learned
You have learned, you have learned

It's easy to forget who you are
In this business of these paper stars
It's easy to forget who you are
In this business of these paper stars

It's easy to forget who you are
In this business of these paper stars
It's easy to forget who you are
In this business of these paper stars
