Is this a break or a fracture? Sugar sweet and manufactured
This cavity you opened in me, won't close so easily I'll stitch myself back together, forget the years I've wasted in NYC
Drag these bones back to Ohio, and live like there's no tomorrow

Live this life while you're still young

I'm tired, I'm tired of chasing dreams
I'm tired, I'm tired of losing sleep
For nothing and no one
I'm sinking to the bottom
And I'm gone

Is this the start or the ending? What kind of messages are you sending?
I see you for what you are, and what you are is all my fault
I'll sever ties so quickly, forget the lies that you sold me Drag these bones back to Ohio, and live life in the shadows

Live this life while you're still young

I'm tired, I'm tired of chasing dreams
I'm tired, I'm tired of losing sleep
For nothing and no one
I'm sinking to the bottom
And I'm gone

I'm tired, I'm tired of chasing dreams
I'm tired, I'm tired of losing sleep
For nothing and no one
I'm sinking to the bottom
And I'm gone
