We used to run around skippin' school and drinkin'
beer
One drink and the good lord would get us out of here
But now those days are gone, and everything has changed
It's all been turned around, everybody's rearranged

Hey, hey, where did all my good friends go
Maybe someplace far away
Where did all my good friends go

Well doug he went to prison for sellin' all his pot
And rick's in california bein' somethin' that he's not
And rob he went to law school, we're all glad he did
But eveytime I call I end up talking to his kid

Repeat chorus

Well bo he joined the navy, to run around and drink
But they finally let him go, after six months in the brink
And rich he went to college, he's workin' night and day
He's been there almost 9 years, but he'll get out someday

Repeat chorus

Bridge:

And I understand, that people they change
Grow up and move away
But oh how I wish, oh how I wish, that all my good friends...
Could be here today

Repeat chorus

But jimmy got a real job, workin' nine to five Every once in a while I call him, make sure he's still alive
And mikey took some time, and found out he way gay
I didn't have the heart to tell him that we all knew anyway

Repeat chorus

Where did all my

Good friends
