I drink too much and I smoke too much
I laugh at all my own jokes too much
I'm hard to tell and soft to touch
And easy at sayin goodbye

I broke your heart, a thousand times
With wasted nights and ramblin rhymes
I thought I'd leave, you thought behind
But time just wouldnt, let go

Chorus:

I walk the streets, I kick the cans
Tore down walls with my two hands
And still across, my floor you stand
Willing, to love, again

Solo

Out of all the dreams, in this whole world
Howd you get so unlucky girl
To find a shell, that had no pearl
And a man who couldnt, find home

I feel too much, I protect too much
And most times I probably expect too much
I spend my life, on this broken crutch
And you believe I can fly

Repeat chorus

And still across, my floor you stand
Willing, to love, again
