well after all these years of running round always flying high and flying down i gotta get back to the way i was gonna turn it all 'round just because and everybody's talkin about the shape im in they say "boy, you aint a poet, just a drunk with a band."
all over and over, again and again, Lord they dont know about the places ive been

it gets hard out here
i know it dont look it
i used to have heart, but the highway took it the game was right but the deal was crooked Lord i'll make it perfectly clear, it gets hard out here i guess there must be something i'm missing my momma told me i shouldve gone into easy listening going with the band cause i thought it was cool oh good Lord i shouldve gone back to school oh pretty darlin it'll be ok you know one of these days im gonna take you away she said, "oh sweet daddy, youre probably right, you know we might get lucky but it wont be tonight"

i used to have heart, but the highway took it
the game was right but the deal was crooked

i know it dont seem it i said i tried but i never did mean it nobody's listening so we mine as well scream it oh God we're all outta bed
it gets hard out here
