verse.

they dont know what love is let alone loyalty backstabbers waitng for an oppertunity to puncuture me running deep off in my longs screaming while im barely breathing now look at u ur done over the years i grew eyes in the back of my head catch me slipping my ass uncle stak and ur dead no exceptions trust is a fabrication thinking ima bust your sadly mistaking bitchass i watched them come and go but the real ones stayed a few of us stuck together and a meal was made bills got paid even when times were tight and i represent my people every rhyme i right in this life bestfriends turn into worst enemies if you dont belive me ask that ball player denehe oh thats right u cant ask him cause his bestfriend blasted him chorus.

you was my friend man threw thick n thin man if i had 20 in my pocket you had 10 man you was my main man back then man so much change man you aint my friend man,you was my friend man threw thick n thin man if i had 20 in my pocket you had 10 man you was my main man back then man so much change man you aint my friend man, you was my friend man threw thick n thin man

was my main man back then man so much change man you aint my friend man,you was my friend man threw thick n thin man if i had 20 in my pocket you had 10 man you was my main man back then man so much change man you aint my friend man.
