When you try so hard but you never caught up yeah...
You keep your thoughts inside, it's gonna be the latest trend
And you can't try to get by on a little whole sleep
There's no point in dreams yeah, when they don't mean a thing
Are you ever ok, (are you ever ok) ok...

I'm trying to, trying to get the radio sound (the radio sound)
I just want to, wanted just to make you proud

(Ha... ha... haaaa, ha haaaa)

When you found some time to stop and rest your head
All the hopeless thoughts you hide, I have made my bet
Lets get together and find some time to talk
And if we never try now then you'll never know what we've got...

I'm trying to, trying to get the radio sound (the radio
sound)
I just want to, wanted just to make you proud
No way no how am I gonna let you down
All I need is a song to get me out of this town

And if you don't get up now, then you won't...
If you think you're addicted now I don't do uhm...

(Wwwooooowwww)

I'm trying to, get to you
And I just want to, wanted just to make you proud
No way no how am I gonna let you down
All I need is a song to get us out of this town

(Ha... ha... haaaa) (ha... ha... haaaa)
