I am flying over mountains in my mind
I am riding through the eye of a storm

Yeah, I could fly
Fly right out of the comfort zone
Or maybe I could take a ride
Right on through the eye of the storm

I think I'll take a ride take a ride
And not think about it
Make a move, make a move
In the right direction
On a wing and a prayer, with the help
With the help of all of my friends

I think I'll just feel the fear and do it, do it
Just feel the fear and do it, do it anyway

Take a vibe, take a vibe
And turn it into good things
Make a change, make a change
From buzzing in the back room
Won't worry if I fall, I sing a song
Sing a song to lift me up, yeah

Just feel the fear and do it, do it
Just feel the fear and do it, do it anyway

Take a chance, take a chance on
This could be the right time
Make a dream, make a dream you can
Make it come true, babe
All we gotta do is believe, all we need
All we need and we shall receive

Just feel the fear and do it, do it
Just feel the fear and do it, do it anyway

Just feel the fear and do it, do it
Just feel the fear and do it, do it
Just feel the fear and do it, do it anyway

If I believe I can fly, then I can
And if I want to take a ride, then I shall
