Jennifer waited a year and a day.
She went to the doctor. they told her to pray.
She knew there was only so much they could say.
So, jennifer decided there must be a better way.

Wake up the neighbors and break out the ale.
Jennifer's baby just came in the mail.
She's pink and she's perfect in every detail.
And jennifer's a mommy now.

Jennifer always wanted a kid.
When they said that she couldn't she said, "heaven forbid."
She said, "i'll adopt". and that's what she did.
Now they've got a stroller, a high chair and a crib.

Wake up the neighbors and break out the ale.
Jennifer's baby just came in the mail.
She's pink and she's perfect in every detail.
And jennifer's a mommy now.

Jennifer has a girl baby.
She's healthy and strong and sweet as can be.
And jenny and larry and baby make three.
Once there was a couple. now there's a family.

Wake up the neighbors and break out the ale.
Jennifer's baby just came in the mail.
She's pink and she's perfect in every detail.
And jennifer's a mommy now.
