once in a while someone comes along that one in a million heart so pure and so strong they can face up to the tears and somehow still find a smile that we only get every once in a while

someone has the eyes that one in a million look that never tells lies they can get you on your feet to walk that extra mile that we only see every once in while

thats why we call them heroes thats why we know their names and once you heard their stories your never quite the same

the best thing they ever do is point to the best in us all and say if i can you can too

i still hear his voice that one in a million sound like two laughing boys he would hated if we cried that never was his style oh we still miss him

oooh they can face up to the tears

oh how i miss him
