I can't find the heartbeat in this city
Give me the right to be amazed, yeah
No one ever justified
The fact that you can touch the sky
In this day and age
We are forced to climb inside your ribcage

I'm gonna climb inside, you're gonna take me where I need to go

One thing you will learn in time
Things are always fine
One thing you will learn tonight
Everything is always alright

No one here can read and that's a pity
You keep staring at the empty page
Every corner that you turn, you see a married couple eating worms
This place is strange, it goes on and on and it's never gonna change

One thing you will learn in time
Things are always fine
One thing you will learn tonight
Everything is always alright

Surprise, surprise
Time flies at the bottom of this bottle
And if you and I have to find somewhere else to live
Before I'm old
Cause I'm younger than I feel,
Younger than I feel
