Standing in the mirror and,
Try to imagine
Forever, what does it look like?
Facing my greatest endeavor

Suddenly closing my eyes
Hands up for the very first time
I'm closing my eyes

Tell me I don't give up
Tell me there's someone out there
Give me a pure love,
Give me a forever that we can both share

Show me it's okay,
Show me it's all right,
That I'm far from crazy for living by faith and not by sight

Will he be proud of,
All of the things I've done,
My mistakes, the things that I, regret
Wishing that I could forget,
My heart breaks,

Suddenly closing my eyes,
Hands up for the very first time
I'm closing my eyes,

Tell don't give up
Tell me there's someone out there
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we can both share
Show me it's okay,
Show me it's all right
That I'm far from crazy

For living by faith and not by sight (guitar)
Eyes can only see soo far
Tired of wishing on all these stares
So I close my eyes and pray

Nothing comes to mind so I let my heart say;

Tell me don't give up
Tell me there's someone out there
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we can both share

Show me it's okay,
Show me it's all right,
That I'm fall from crazy
For living by faith and not by sight

Tell me don't give up
Tell me there's someone out there
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we both can share

Show me it's okay,
Show me it's alright
For living by faith and not by sight

Give me a love,
Give me a love,
Give me a pure love,
Give me a love
Give me a love,
Give me a pure love.
