Like a scene in science fiction
Where the creature will not die
I'll be using perfect diction
Even though I'm terrified

I see you smell it through me
Can you find a way to die
I think I might hear some one coming out of the corner of my eye

I've been meaning to look into your eyes
I've seen 'em a half a million times
How have I not seen them like this? Strange...
I've been meaning look behind your smile
Seen it a half a million times
So how did I not notice you had fangs?

I just had the strangest vision
The apartment was on fire
You were standing in the kitchen
You were covered in cherry pie

Well you know I've seen what's behind your back
So you can't tell me it was just some snack
Uhhh... I think I'm gonna be sick

I've been meaning to look into your eyes
I've seen 'em a half a million times
How have I not seen them like this? Strange...
I've been meaning look behind your smile
Seen it a half a million times
So how did I not notice you had fangs?

Now that I've boarded up my door
And I'm laying on the floor
Just trying to catch my breath
Could you just give me minute! ?

No I don't need no other friend
So I will not let you in
And if you don't go away
Then I'm jumping out the window
