Stand in the mirror, and
Try to imagine forever
What does it look like,
Facing my greatest endeavor?

Suddenly closing my eyes
Hands up for the very first time;
I'm closing my eyes

Tell me, "Don't give up!"
Tell me, "There's someone out there!"
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we both can share

Show me it's okay
Show me it's all right
That I'm far from crazy
For living by faith and not by sight

Ohh

Will he be proud of
All the things I've done
And my mistakes

Things that I regret
Wishing that I could forget
My heartbreaks

Suddenly closing my eyes
Hands up for the very first time;
I'm closing my eyes

Tell me, "Don't give up!"
Tell me, "There's someone out there!"
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we both can share

Show me it's okay
Show me it's all right
That I'm far from crazy
For living by faith and not by sight

Eyes can only see so far
Tired of wishing on all these stars
So I close my eyes and pray
Nothing comes to mind
so I let my heart say:

Tell me don't give up
Tell me there's someone out there
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we both can share

Show me it's okay
Show me it's all right
That I'm far from crazy
For living by faith and not by sight

Tell me, "Don't give up!"
Tell me, "There's someone out there!"
Give me a pure love
Give me a forever that we both can share

Show me it's okay
Show me it's all right
That I'm far from crazy
For living by faith and not by sight

Give me a love-
Give me a love-
Give me a pure love

Give me a love-
Give me a love-
A pure love.
