Gave you money, bought you things
Gave you lovin' without any strings
So when you left me, you could have left
A little bit of my heart
Took you places, saw bright city lights
Make good lovin, ooh so many nights
But then you left me, you left
With evert bit of my heart

Ooh I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leave

I called up your number, you're never there
You drive me crazy but you don't even care
Cause you left me, you've taken every bit of my heart
Another night dressed in red
You couldn't care if I was alive or dead
You keep me hangin' with every bit of my heart
Whoaoooh

I know what you're lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leave

Ooh ooh when you were leavin'
I just said goodbye
I tried everything I know to change your mind
Maybe I'll see you again, another time
Until then you know where I can be found

Ooh I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leave

Gave you money, bought you things
Gave you lovin' without any strings
So when you left me, you could've left

A little bit of my heart
Took you places, saw bright city lights
Made good lovin' ooh so many nights
But still you left me and you left with Every bit of my heart
