Time to find the right way
It seems to take so long
When I find the right way
I know I will be strong

Because you will be beside me
Righting what is wrong
I got to have you next to me
Loving me, loving me along

Searching for my fortune
I wonder what I'll find
I don't know what I'm heading for
I may just lose my mind
But as long as your beside me
Nothing can go wrong

I got to have you next to me
Loving me, loving me along

I've always been uncertain
About the way I get things done
But as long as I got you to turn to
I'll know I'll be sure of what I doooo
