Five seconds of decision
To realize your purpose here on Earth
Five minutes of careful thought
To achieve maximum effort
We have no faith in the summer of love
Worship the sun and it rains
Were tipping sideways, sideways
Hand in hand, head in my knees
I'm cruising the slums with my sister and brother
I'll follow them anywhere

All of the time looking over my shoulder
Biting my tongue as we turn the next corner
The flowers that we wear
Have shit on their petals
The blood on the screen
Spells my name
Joyride joyride Burning X
Joyride joyride Burning X
Joyride joyride Burning X
This time, this time, this time
