Oh, please don't be so careless with your glances
Don't look at me that way and breathe a sigh
Oh, please don't get too close and let me love you
'Cause I'd just be fool enough to try

It's not that I don't think I'm worthy of you
But memories from the past I still recall
Don't let me hold you in my arms and kiss you
'Cause I'd just be fool enough to fall

Don't let me tell you how I've dreamed about you
And longed to have a love that I could share
Oh, please don't let your eyes be so revealing
'Cause I'd just be fool enough to care

It's not that I don't think I'm worthy of you
But memories from the past I still recall
Don't let me hold you in my arms and kiss you
'Cause I'd just be fool enough to fall
