"Red Sails In The Sunset"

Hmm, red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home
Safely to me

He sailed at the dawning all day
I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset
I'm trusting in you

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And he'll go sailing no more

Way out on the sea
Safely to me

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And he'll go sailing no more
