You know you don't love me but you still want to touch
me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly want to use me emotionally abuse me show the rope and dangle It above me want the truth and nothing but the whole truth say I'm nervous but I'm looking for the real proof found the photo and the little piece of paper without a name but that will come later

It would seem that your no good at deceit It would appear that you lie and you cheat want to shriek to the beings in the corner want to howl coz It feels like torture

Spare me your weak apologies I dont care for the way they make me bleed can't find a reason and you won't explain you'll be sorry If It happens again

Lets make a deal or I'll hurt you, you know

Beat a path to my door why, why, why say all the things you said before why why tell me the gospel according to you

You know you don't love me but you still want to touch
me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly
want to use me emotionally abuse me
show the rope and dangle It above me

You know you don't love me but you still want to touch
me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly
want to use me emotionally abuse me

show the rope and dangle It above me

Lets make a deal or I'll hurt you, you know

You Haven't a notion and you haven't a clue you have to know I cannot trust you, now I know to well your ways now I know IÂ'll always pay So IÂ'll sit in my room not daring to move never raising my voice and thinking of you and IÂ'll try to Imagine that we never met try to pretend and IÂ'll try to forget

Lets make a deal or IÂ'll hurt you, you know

You know you donÂ't love me but you still want to touch
me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly
want to use me emotionally abuse me
show the rope and dangle It above me

me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly
want to use me emotionally abuse me
show the rope and dangle It above me

me
feel my body well It makes me feel ugly
want to use me emotionally abuse me
show the rope and dangle It above me
