Look at the man with the fancy dress
He ain't got no time does his line, feels bad at best
Look at his face got lines to spare
Ain't had no sleep, worryin' late about his despair
Sits at the bar crawls back to gin, goes home at four Wife locks the door, won't let him in Sleeps in the car most every nights
Up at dawn quickly gone avoid a fight
Breakin' down, breakin' down
Take me away, don't spare me
Breakin' down, breakin' down
It crossed his mind about suicide
But throws away the plan can't cut his hand, he's afraid to die
He's a desperate man, can't find a way
Blew his mind, can't find a cure, can't stand no more
Looks in the mirror, can't find himself
Runs away, can't face the day, don't like himself
And then comes the day to end it all
A sacrifice for misery he takes his life
Breakin' down, breakin' down

Take me away, don't spare me

Breakin' down, breakin' down

Take me away

It crossed his mind about suicide

But threw away his plan couldn't cut his hand, was afraid to die

A desperate man, couldn't find a way

Blew his mind, find no cure, he was no more

Looks in the mirror, can't find himself

Runs away, can't face the day, didn't like himself

And then comes the day to end it all

A sacrifice for misery he takes his life

Breakin' down, breakin' down

Take me away, don't spare me

Breakin' down, breakin' down

Take me away, take me away

I can't stand it, breakin' down
