I saw a bit of silver shining in a puddle I was gonna pick it up but I didn't want to get my hands muddy I saw you leap in so quick to jump in I saw the look in your eyes searching for something You want a piece of my luck go ahead and take it
you want a piece of my cake when I haven't even baked it you want a piece of my head when I haven't even maked it
go ahead and take it
I went a walking under a ladder the bucked fell on your head that didn't matter
I saw you falling thought you were crying I saw the look in your face knew your were lying
