A slight depression in the surface
Suddenly i lose my balance
Once again nothing is certain
And every breath i take is hurting

I cannot buy what we're sold
Can't believe a word we're told
Everything just leaves me cold
Damn, this shit is getting old

And i rise (fall)
And i rise

I can't breathe underneath this weight
I can't sleep - falling awake

I can't pretend any longer
I'm getting weaker, not stronger
Why can't i just smile and be happy?
Why can't i swallow what they give me?

Not awake - not asleep
The only place i know is inbetween
Not awake - not asleep
The only place i go is inbetween

And i rise (fall)
And i rise

I can't breathe underneath this weight
I can't sleep - falling awake

The sun rises on a new day
But everything is just the same
Another lie, another war
Another dollar worth killing for...

Fall...

I've been falling for so long
Still don't feel like i belong
I've been falling for so long

I hope it's not too late... this song

And i fall...

Awake
