"Smile And Wave"

Billy's got a PhD and Sara she's a teacher, they love to rock and roll
And blow their brains out on the weekend
Together they have built a world, a lot of it is real And we are here to ease them through the parts they can't conceal
I smile and wave (x4)
Now their swearing up and down, they're coming off so clean
Surely they will fall to their doom, another inch closer, closer to the Railing
And nobody here is ever fooled
I smile and wave, yeah! (x4)
And I wave...(x4)
A lot of rain and fancy coffees, best suited couple I know
They spend everything that they've ever harnessed
Now tell me how is your happy home
I smile and wave, yeah! (x4)
And I wave...and I'm smiling
And I wave...(x3)
Yeahhhhh!
