Reframed

I said I'll been leaving and now I thank you for The trouble Your compassion seems to even
Up the score Your ability to ridicule has left Things at a stand still
And I don't find it peculiar anymore I didn't Drive here but I know that I was driven
And I trust that you would know to overcome
And take over the precious seconds of this Minute That left us both alone and fucking
Numb I'm amazed that I Haven't caved And I've Still got faith in my Self today I'm no stranger
To misbehaviour I've reframed Every single
Failure
The promises we made weren't broken but They're fading Neither one of us should be Guilty or ashamed It's just a word I heard
Maybe I don't remember Somewhere along the Line I misbehaved I'm amazed that I Haven't Changed With all the rage In the world today
I'm no stranger To human nature I've reframed
Every single failure Missing pieces that are left Out of the story Painting over all things they Didn't like It's got something to do with what Makes us all tick There's something there that Eats us up inside. i'm amazed that i haven't caved
And i still have faith in myself today i'm a stranger
To misbehevier reframed every single failure
Every single failure every single failure every single failure
