this is not right, the shallow sight of the dutiful i love them all 'cause they're so ugly and beautiful it's clear for me to see that you were made for this immutable and given to fits, you avarice is cavernous and this is nothing compared to what we're gonna get we've been blessed by the angel of success and stress i'm breaking out of this coast to coastal in five ticks i'm going global and postal pace yourself, brace yourself you've been so good to me so just consider this a payback

this is a new day and you're the big winner you're never gonna believe what you see

ch. (sung)
before my eyes, life passed me by, i found myself a veil has been pulled away and things look big today it's like a riddle designed to make you feel little ch.

and lost and always pulling back to the middle
being cool is a compromise.
your mind is victimized, baptized, chastised,
ostracized
cue the backlash, heaven helps the ones who rehash and nevaloutonaries looking through your old trash i'm going out of my way to put you back on the shelf you must contain yourself and entertain yourself the way is littered with shams and also rans running to fall but all is not lost, given the cost you gotta have a firm plan

and done in with a wrecking ball, who never question anything at all this conciousness is sublime and we are numbed by the passage of time, we are a blight of bottled water and cannon fodder these motherfuckers are suckers, it's a crime you need an 18 year old wife and a 19 year old daughter

ch. (sung)

and nevaloutionaries looking through your old trash maybe your ship will come in, maybe your number's up bridge but either way your life will never be the same wake every day with a song in a heart small and lame

ch. (sung)

your mind is victimized, baptized, chastised,
and nevaloutionaries looking through your old trash you mustn't blame yourself and never blame you
