I would like to say that i, i never ment to make you cry I think about you everyday no matter what your friends might say. everybody knows my name even though im still the same. I just would like to say that i, i never ever ment to make you cry.

I would like to know why there are clouds in the sky every time i fall inlove an i would like to know why im sittin here on my own. I would like to know why when i find a nice guy someone i can lean upon, i mess it all up an then i wonder why im all alone.

Tell me if you think that i, im talkin way to much an tell me if you'd like to stay in touch.

(chorus)

Sittin on the sofa lettin life go by, thinkin bout the early days thinkin bout
the time that i hurt you with my crazy ways all i wanna do is look around for you yeah drive until the break of dawn track ya down call an pleadin till ya comin home.

Tell me if you think that i, ive bin a bit too much an tell me if you'd like to

(chorus)

didnt mean to be so cruel didnt mean to let you down im so sorry for the rain on your parade and all the pain you must of gained
because of me

(chorus)
