I hear a sweeter sound
I see your face
Your endless eyes that carry me way inside
And even though
I know you know
When you bring that smile
It takes my breath and leads me on
To that place I wanna go

Come Closer To The Sun
The shadows have begun to slip away, away
The emptiness and loneliness undone

Oh no, no turning back
Don't look down, don't look behind
There's nothing there, nothing there
But time gone by, and all that rain
Oh, that endless rain
Will not drown this chance
Believe me now, we can get away
If you take my hand, can I have this dance?

Come Closer To The Sun
The shadows have begun to slip away, away
The emptiness and loneliness undone

Come closer
