I can see you in the back seat, sitting there by your self Alone in the hot seat, wishing you were somewhere else
And a voice inside you raise's, Like a nickel in the wheat
There's goanna be a change, this is your lucky day
Whoa, whoa, you're dancing in the rain
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day
The road will rise to meet you, like a long lost friend
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day
Wore your confessions, like a string of pearls, hiding your obsessions, like a little girl
You're pushing and pulling, they were testing your faith
And all of your mind useless you must get out of this place
You knew you were fallen; you lost your way,
And you can hear it calling; this is your lucky day
Whoa, whoa you're dancing in the rain
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day
The road will rise to meet you, like a long lost friend
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day Whoa, Whoa, all around the world, you're goanna find your way baby
Yeah, hold on around the world, this is your lucky day,
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
Whoa, whoa, you're dancing in the rain
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day
The road will rise to meet you, like a long lost friend
You're goanna find your way; this is your lucky day
There will be a change, this is your luck day, your luck day, MM, MM
Your lucky day, oh, oh, your luck day lucky day
