No wind when I took the watch

My ship was still and waitin'

I lay on that mirrored sky

A restless sailor waitin'

I closed my eyes said the Words of will for the gentle

Breathin' that moves the seas

Make my sails fill

Whisper waves cloud the glass

Awake at last like a lover

It rushed around the talkin' sweet

Roll over, roll over, roll over

And in my ear he blew his name

It sound so strange but I heard it plain

Mistral mistral wind

I have always held the wheel but

I let the wind steal my power

Spin me 'round lose my course

Nights run be like hours

Well, it would show me the way

To the deepest mountains

Too high and beautiful to be

Mistral, mistral wind
All the hours on the watch

I wait for that breeze to move me

And blow me back to that place

Magic space all through me

And I sigh your name

Across the empty water

You made a crazy dreamer out of me

Mistral, mistral, mistral, mistral,

Mistral, mistral
