Come on get out that wig, I know you
Put on those shiny pointed shoes
We'll have a strange night

Corsage, long gown, all the rest
That ain't exactly what we call dressed
For a strange night

You're gonna lose who you are
We could take it pretty far
Can there ever be any harm?

No one will know you
You won't show
So feel wild like we used to

Just tonight the feeling's right
The wear of disguise
That won't show through

Hey we'll go out in the old red car
You can sit in the back seat
And you can play your guitar

If the blue lights flash while we're rockin'
Don't you worry I'll do the talkin' on
And tell you alright

You're going to lose who you are
We could take it pretty far
Can there ever be any, any harm

No one will know you
You won't show
Just gonna be wild like we used to

Just tonight that the feeling's right
Gonna wear that disguise, it's been a
Won't show through, won't show through on you

Let's just stop at random places
I just want to see the look on their faces

What a strange sight!

Put on that wig I know you
I know what you like to do
Strange, strange night

A strange night
A strange night
A strange night
