Through bloodshot eyes you realize
That you've left everything behind. Moving closer moving closer but wait,
I can't take flight I can't take flight.
This won't be perfect, I can assure you.
You will just have to trust me,
You will just have to trust me.
This won't be perfect, I can assure you.
I'll tear myself open
To prove that this is everything.
Please wipe that look off your face
Before I give you everything
In my power to keep you breathing.

Please wipe that look off your face!
Please wipe that look off your face!
You're slowly fading out of my sight,
You're slowly fading out of my sight.
I can't help running after you,
You will not die by my hand.
This won't be perfect, I can assure you.
You will just have to trust me,
You will just have to trust me.
I'll tear myself open
To prove that this is everything.
This won't be perfect.
It makes you perfect.
