All my life i've been on the run never slowed down for anyone keeping my distance livin life in the fast lane in control callin' all the shots no one could touch me well that's what I thought then i met her now everythings changed ooh and it's out of my hands no need to deny it she's got me where she wants me and i just can't fight it I could resist but I wouldn't get very far cause theres nothin you can do once a woman gets a hold of your heart Fallin in love never fit my plans I set the rules I was my own man I never met a lover I couldn't live without she walked in filled my soul with desire melted this old frozen heart with a fire now it's burnin away every shadow of a doubt ooh and it's out of my hands no need to deny it she's
got me where she
cause theres nothin you can do once a woman gets a
got me where she
cause theres nothin you can do once a woman gets a
hold of your heart
Once a woman gets a hold of your heart
