Jesus, I don't mean to bother You,
I'm sure You got better things You need to do.
But I've been real bad, but You already know that,
don't You?
And that that way ain't easy.

I did some things wouldn't have done to me,
Things that would make an ordinary man yell, fight and scream.
But no, no, not him, he just left without a scene,
That's just a man he is.

And I understand why he set me free,
But I want him back home, so I'm begging You,
please.
Jesus, you know I can't live, live without him,
He's more than I need.
Since he's been gone I can't breathe, breathe
without him,
Have mercy on me.

You can work miracles, this I know,
I don't care how You do it, just bring him back home.
Jesus, you know I believe You can bring him back to me,
You can bring him back to me.

I found myself more in a compromise,
But I never meant to hurt my angel.
And before you know it, I was telling lies,
That's just the way it was.

I don't know how I could ever go on,
I did my man harm and that day's gone.

Jesus, you know I can't live, live without him,
He's more than I need.
Since he's been gone I can't breathe, breathe
without him,
Have mercy on me.

If You walked on water and made that man see,

Then You got the power, make him come home to me.

Jesus, You know I believe You can bring him back to
These arms that will hold him
And love him like I know that I should.
Can You bring him back, cause IÂ'm nothing without him.
IÂ'm promise this time IÂ'll be good, IÂ'll be better than
I can.

Jesus, you know I canÂ't live, live without him,
HeÂ's more than I need.
Since heÂ's been gone I canÂ't breathe, breathe
without him,
Have mercy on me.

You tell the winter to turn into spring,
You do it, if You tell him to love me again.

Jesus, You know I believe You can bring him back to me.
You can bring him back to me.

So listen, in the meantime,
IÂ'll be waiting by the door,
Sitting by the phone,
IÂ'll be right here until You bring my man back home.
Bring him home, back,
Bring him back to me.
You just bring him back.

You can walk on water, make blind men see,
IsnÂ't that hard, you can do this for me.
Bring him home, back,
You bring him home, back,
Bring him home, back,
I need You to tell him IÂ'll be real, real good
So, so, so, so good.
IÂ'll do anything.
IÂ'm begging You, please, down on my knees,
I just want my man home.
IÂ'll stay on my knees.
Bring him home, back.
