Who and what is home when you live on the road?
Who and what can you call your own?

What is life? What does it mean?
When greed leads us to take when we don't need?

We live alone surrounded by people
Stuck in our houses fenced in and fit
Why can't I love you the way that I want to?
Can't love look different than Hollywood?
Can't love look different than Hollywood?

Why do we all wear this sad face?
Why can't we live in our own chosen place?

Why can't we open like light on a hill?
Why do we fight and fear our free will?

I'll wear a color if you change your shade
Then we'll be different and all look the same
I'll talk with new words if you change your prayer
Then we'll find heaven and not know we're there
Then we'll find heaven and not know we're there
