The truth comes over me
Like wine, like summer heat

The world, it moves too fast
I miss my simple past

And I can see
For all the things I think I need
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
Where there's only, only green sea
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
I only want to want
Nothing

Child, she knows it's good
She plays the way she should
Her days, they taste like lime
She moves in perfect time

And I can see
For all the things I think I need
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
Where there's only, only green sea
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
I only want to want
Nothing, nothing, no

There's no promises
Today is all there is

And I can't see
For all the things I think I need
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
Where there's only, only green sea
Brother take me out to where the reef ends
I only want to want
Nothing, oh nothing, nothing
