I lay down with you
Lost and lonely in space
I'd go blind for you
You wipe the smile from my face
Cracked my spine for you
I think I've been here before
Take my time with you
But now I think I'm replaced

You've got something I want
I've got nothing you need
I've been here before
So many times in the scenery

Here we go again
Hanging onto myself
Here we go again
Standing over this hill
Does it ever end
I know I've been here before
So I, I won't try, and I won't think
But I your going to push tell me how I can take

Die for you
My hands are over my head
Say goodbye for you
You know I'm better off died
Kill my high for you
I think I've been here before
Take this ride for you
The passenger is all bored

You've got something I want
I've been here before
So many times that will never be

Here we go again
Hanging onto myself
Here we go again
Standing over this hill

Does it ever end
I know I've been here before
But I, I won't try, and I won't think
I know your going to push me tell me how much can I take

I can stop the world
If I can get you off
I will stop the world
If I can put you over
I will stop the world
If I can get you off
In time

Here we go again
Hanging on to myself
Here we go again
But I, I won't try, I won't think
But I know your going to push me how much can I take now

I can stop the world
If I can get you off
If I can put you over
If I can get you off
I will stop the world
In time, in time
