

Heather Myles "How Could She"

Visit "How Could She" on MotoLyrics.com

She didn't know what she had.
She let a good thing go bad.
Love ain't a gift you take for granted.
You gave her a band of gold,
And more than a heart can hold,
And, honey, I don't understand it.

How could she be so blind?
How could she have it all and set it free.
Your heart's the keepin' kind.
If you were mine to love,
I wouldn't give you up.
Oh, darlin', how could she?

I'd always be there for you.
She really didn't know you.
She never took the time to listen.
I could be more than just a friend.
You can learn to love again.
Find out what you been missin'.

How could she be so blind?

How could she have it all and set it free.
Your heart's the keepin' kind.
If you were mine to love,
I wouldn't give you up.
Oh, darlin', how could she?

Instrumental break.

How could she be so blind?
How could she have it all and set it free.
Your heart's the keepin' kind.
If you were mine to love,
I wouldn't give you up.
Oh, darlin', how could she?

Oh, darlin', how could she?

