Stop

Does he know the way out of here
Or will she again interfere?
It's happening all over again

Lady Ice and Mr. Hex

She'll leave you could, he'll make you flex
They disappear without a trace
Accelerate and take your place

The creep's arrived he's in your home
Like all the dreams, you've never known
He's standing by to steal your luck
He's spotted you, you're panic struck

Stop

Stop

They're standing either side of you
They guide you but they block your view
The Lady Ice with medium cool
Will set you up, she's watching you

She'll trip you out and trap you in
Strain every nerve to make you spin
He'll pick you up and make you strong
Thrust up, boost on, the man is gone

Stop

Does he know the way out of here
Or will she again interfere?
It's happening all over again

Look

They made me a promise today
They know that I can't go away
It's happening all over again

Stop

Does he know the way out of here
Or will she again interfere?

It's happening all over again

Look

They made me a promise today

They know that I can't go away

It's happening all over again
