Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on

I heard a rumor that fires were started
Flame in the streets and tension uncharted
Bigger than life at the edge of the city
Ashes and diamonds gleaming with pity

Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on

Between midnight and dawn, you slept through the deadlines
Believe in me and we'll hit the tall headlines
Look up and laugh, be happy today
Here come the waves, count three and pray

Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on

A global affair in big house, U.S.A.
A moving violation, angels over Broadway
The next voice you hear will be the main attraction
The next time we love, standby for action

Meet me tonight and love me forever
Let's be happy, let's be famous whatever the weather
The rain must fall and night time is calling Golden boy and golden girl, it's a great day in the morning

Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on

Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on

Who'll stop the rain?
Who'll stop the action?
East side, west side
The world moves on
