Close
Your eyes
And die
Bleeding, for a new life

Your old life, was like hell
You hated yourself, dreamed of death

No one can understand you
Can feel the pain like you
You hurt yourself for pleasure
You want to die, but you ain't do
Bleeding for a new life

You hear the voices scream
They won't go, let you know - that
Your life is killing you
Bleeding for a new life
Full of hate, you will create
An abyss, of your fate

The voices follow you
You can't repress, they just mass
For the reincarnation
Bleeding for a new life
The hate, to your fate
Had taken your life - away

You want to die but you don't die
You want to live but your live, is fuckin' you
So close your eyes and dream of death
To realise that everything you ever thought is trash

Bleeding for a new life
