The time has come for my vengeance
This is the beginning of an dusky age
I'm gonna smash your face and break your bones
But I will not execute you yet

I want to hear you suffering
Until you pray for mercy to god
But no one will answer you
Cause there is no heaven, but I will show you hell on earth

This is my destiny, this is my atony,
This is my constraint for a brutal kill...

This is the desire, this is my atony,
This is my constraint for a brutal kill...

Oh god I hate you
I want your death
Just rot in pieces
And go to hell
Oh fuckin' god I want to KILL!

I'm stained with blood...
The walls are red...
I'm full of hate...
The bloodshed's done...
